PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Origius System Pvt. Ltd. | Pune
SPECIALIST - FRONTEND DEVELOPER | Oct 2023 - April 2025

- Spearheading frontend development using React.js and frameworks such as Next.js, delivering scalable features across major platforms, including alliedmarketresearch.com and researchdive.com.
- Rebuilt old e-commerce platform from scratch by using React.js and Next.js, also enhancing UI, reducing load times, and improving core product and report pages for mobile responsiveness.
- Regularly collaborate with design teams to implement and refine interactive, performance-optimized components for high-traffic production systems.

InfoVerse | Nagpur
FRONT END DEVELOPER | Mar, 2022 - Aug, 2023

- Designed and implemented web architectures for NFT marketplaces and crypto-swapping platforms, optimizing performance and ensuring secure, scalable solutions using React.js, SCSS, and React-Bootstrap.
- Led frontend development of a rental property platform (similar to 99acres.com) from the ground up, delivering a fully responsive solution that improved user engagement and decreased bounce rates.
- Delivered tailored websites for fintech, NFT, and e-commerce clients, translating complex requirements into clean, maintainable, high-performing user interfaces.

Webakruti Softwares | Nagpur
FRONT END DEVELOPER | Nov, 2018 - Feb, 2022

- Spearheaded the development of a fully mobile-responsive website from scratch, delivering pixel-perfect, optimal performance and UX across all screen sizes.
- Engineered two distinct CSS architectures: one optimized for desktop and mobile browsers, and another specifically tailored for Android and iOS applications using the same codebase, enabling seamless integration between web and mobile platforms, reducing development overhead, and accelerating mobile app delivery.
- Developed custom HTML email templates aligned with branding and marketing goals, ensuring mobile responsiveness and optimal UI/UX.
- Collaborated with the design team to implement streamlined, user-friendly UI solutions, working directly with client stakeholders to understand business requirements, while ensuring comprehensive documentation and reporting throughout all stages of the product development lifecycle.
